Memoriam

Help us, Adonai, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that, generations hence, it will be true to say of us: The world is better because, for a brief space, they lived in it.

Memorial Wall

The The solitary flame of the yahrzeit candle is a silent tribute to the preciousness and indestructibility of the human soul...

Dear Members,

The walls inside our small chapel are filled with memorial plaques that honor the loved ones of members of our synagogue. Why do we buy plaques? Our Torah talks of Abraham paying for a resting place and marker for his beloved Sara after she passed away. This tradition has continued, and a stone of some kind marks all Jewish graves before the year is up. An additional marking is placement of a memorial plaque in the synagogue. The plaque honors the deceased, is a visual remembrance of that person, and is a comforting marker for the family members.

We hope that this method of memorializing your loved one will appeal to you and your family as it has for Jews for many generations. You will receive annual notification of the Yahrzeit and the reminder for the recitation of the Kaddish.

If you would like to purchase a plaque for a loved one, please call Betsy or Helaine in the temple office at 599-2634. The cost of the plaque is $700.

May the memory of our loved ones serve as a continuing inspiration to those who cherished them.
